Publication Order Form

Historic Map, by Eugene Scheel

The Historic Map of Prince William County graphically locates roads, towns, schools, post offices and many other features of the area. Potomac River depths are marked as well as elevations. Special attention is paid to the First and Second Battles of Manassas, with insets of the battle. Several line drawings of noteworthy buildings decorate the map. The overall size is 33" wide by 37" high.

Two versions of the map are available:

Folded for convenient use in a glove box or briefcase ($10)

Unfolded, suitable for framing. (limited quantity available) ($20)

Special Combination Offer: The Crossroads and Corners book and the folded Historic Map for only $15, plus shipping and handling (see below).
